THURSDAY—A VERY IMPORTANT PRESENTATION OF

Women's Japanese Kimonos

At very, very low prices

At $2.95—Real Japanese kimono—from the soft crepe used as the basis, to the flowing sleeves and sash and colorful embroidery, that make them truly Japanese. In Copenhagen blue, rose, coral, light blue and pink. Sizes 36 to 44. Misses' sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.

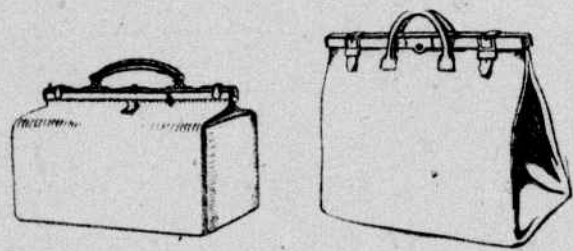

*Embroidered Silk
Japanese Kimonos*
15.00

The beloved flowers of Japan—the rose, cherry blossom and wisteria—lend their beauty—and so realistically are they embroidered, one might almost say their fragrance, as well—to these kimono for precious leisure moments. Made of Crepe de Chine and Satin in pink, blue, Copenhagen, rose, plum, navy and black.

Japanese Marriage Kimonos 50.00

In Japan, a bride cannot have too many of these luxurious kimonos—they really are her dowry—and while an American woman may not use them for exactly the same purpose, neither can she have too many of these gorgeous creations. The silks are the finest Japan produces—hand-painted, and the linings are aflame with color. In black lined with cerise—blue with gold—red with red. Third Floor

THINGS DECIDEDLY NEW

*A Crepe
de Chine Overblouse*

refuses silk for trimming, and uses instead simple white linen with hand-made crochet. The effect is delightful. In gray, flesh and bisque.

Red Kid Shoes for Children

are fascinating in their gay color.
And since red is being featured so prominently in children's apparel, these shoes will complete the costume perfectly.

The "Radnor" Sports Frock for Misses

is adorably youthful. Heavy Crepe de Chine lends itself readily to the slim silhouette, and tiny silver buttons gleam be-witchingly. In beige, white, flesh, henna, and the new blues, with contrasting collar and cuffs

*A French
Beaded Bag*

manages to fit a round bag into a square frame—despite the proverb to the contrary. The tiny beads are put together by hand, and the frame is a bit of rare beauty.

WOMEN'S

Taffeta Afternoon Frocks

Specialty priced

at 39.50

Perhaps it is sheer pride in its beaded bodice which makes this taffeta frock stand out so crisply fresh,—and then again
it may simply be the joy of Springtime which runs like electricity down each gay little row of fluting which trims the skirt and sleeves.

Quietly dressy for an afternoon function, yet demure enough for street wear. Of black or navy taffeta of excellent quality. Sizes 34 to 44.

SAKS WILL FEATURE THURSDAY

Spring Suits for Women

At 49.50

The new suits do not depend upon trimming for smartness, so this tricotine model uses only silk braid to relieve its simplicity. The long slender line is broken only by a narrow belt.

The skirt is simple, in keeping with the coat—giving just a hint of the new width for Spring.

Also at 49.50—other delightful styles, from the jaunty box coat to the severely tailored model in Tricotine, Poiret Twill and Tweeds.

A Special Collection of

Suits for Women

Requiring Extra Sizes

At 59.50

Suits of tricotine that convey all the smartness of regular sizes—in long, unbelted models, or trig belted styles. There are long shawl collars, notch effects and the tuxedo coat, which the Spring modes demand. Trimmings are banding of self material, gleaming braid or silk stitchery, and effective embroidery—all at 59.50.
